

El Paso's Only Exclusive Ready-to-Wear Store.
The window displays of new fall fashions are really fascinating

Announcement

Beautiful Fall Garments in Wide Variety of Newest Styles

Now, as in the past, we are first to show correct styles for the coming season. Being a "Specialty House," it is our duty to do so, and we have never yet disappointed our customers. Beginning tomorrow, displays of more than ordinary interest will be made in the following sections:

The New Fall Dresses

Handsome dresses than those we display tomorrow have never been shown in El Paso. The display comprises Wool and Silk Marquisesettes, Corduroys, Voiles, Silks, Acroleines, White Serges and Painted Chiffons. The color range embraces every new shade that will be worn during the 1910-11 season. As to trimmings: the newest concepts in Persian as well as the more subdued effects are shown. Dresses displayed for both street and evening wear.

The New Petticoats

Persian patterns, without a doubt, will be more popular the coming season than ever before. In addition to appearing in trimmings of dresses and suits, petticoats in Persian designs are one of the accepted fads. Already we are showing a large collection of these petticoats. They are made of superior taffeta and should sell for considerably more than our introductory price—which is $4.95.

The New Tailored Suits

The display of dresses is on a more extensive scale than the display of suits, yet the Suit Section offers a wonderful variety of styles for so early in the season. The majority of these suits are along man tailored lines—coats ranging from the short, extreme, French styles to the accepted American models which are a trifle longer. Even if you are not ready to select the fall suit, we will be glad to have you come, examine the showing in detail and try on any suit that pleases you particularly.

New Fall Waists

The new waists are indeed handsome. Among the more elaborate waists now shown are the latest ideas in Persian effects—some waists show chiffon in Persian design over solid colored silk, while others are plain chiffon over Persian taffeta. Hand embroidered nets and other new ideas will also be displayed tomorrow.

Season's End Sale

Tomorrow, the last day of our Season's End Sale, will be one of the biggest bargain days the store has ever seen. We deem it hardly necessary to go into detail on the various garments that will be offered. You are fully acquainted with the superior class of summer garments we carry. We depend on the simple announcement—that tomorrow will witness the closing out of all these garments—to insure your attendance.

SHERIFFS OF TEXAS ASK THAT STATE LAWS BE AMENDED IN SOME PARTICULARS

the applicants be placed on the membership rolls.

New Laws Desired.

A resolution prepared by Jake Giles, B. D. Lindsey and B. F. Walker was submitted to the convention directing the legislative committee to use its influence in getting better laws for the sheriff of the state. The resolution recommended that the legislative committee use every means to have the present law amended to give each sheriff or peace officer the right to arrest any fugitive or criminal anywhere within the state; also to amend the law relative to warrants of arrests and capias so that all peace officers of the state may be protected the same as if they had the warrant or capias in their hands.

Jake Giles, chairman of this committee, spoke on the need for new laws, including an amendment to the bill which allows the sheriff but 50 cents a day for feeding prisoners. "That bill was passed in 1875," sheriff Giles, of Beaumont, Jefferson county, said. "That was when things were cheap, when cattle were allowed to run on the range and some were either owned by the sheriff or a few taken by them now and then. It is different now. We should get the law amended allowing the sheriff 45 or 50 cents per day for feeding the prisoners."

Shot at Governor.

Sheriff Giles also took a shot at governor Campbell, saying that in order to get an expense bill allowed for bringing a prisoner brought back from another state, it was necessary to enter into a private contract with the governor before this could be done. He cited two examples of his own in which he had not received compensation for going out of the state after a prisoner, one of which had caused him to be arrested in New Orleans for kidnapping.

although he brought the prisoner back with him.

Attorney Is Heard.

At the conclusion of his talk sheriff Giles asked for the time of the convention to order that C. W. Howth, county attorney of Jefferson county, might address the convention on this subject. Attorney Howth, who is in El Paso on route to Mexico City on a pleasure trip, gave a clear presentation of the sheriff's side of the case of the sheriffs of Texas vs. the state.

"These funds for enforcing the law should be taken out of the hands of the governor," he said. "The legislature places at the disposal of the governor a fund for the enforcement of the law and the governor dominates that fund. The last appropriation for this purpose was $1500 for enforcing the law in so vast a territory as Texas. The sheriffs should bring pressure to bear on the legislature to appropriate an adequate sum for enforcing the laws. If there is any justification for other states to say that Texas is lawless it is because of the miserably policy of the legislature. They should appropriate funds for going to other states to get fugitives and criminals. The governor ought not to have the power to say whether or not the sheriff should or should not be allowed his expense bill. This should be fixed by the legislature and paid out of the state treasury."

Prisoners Fed Too Cheaply.

"The compensation for feeding prisoners at the present time is grossly inadequate. The high cost of living has caused foodstuffs for prisoners the same as for freemen to increase. The fees of the sheriff's office are not adequate and these facts should be remedied at the next session of the legislature. The laws going out of the state after a prisoner, one of which had caused him to be arrested in New Orleans for kidnapping."

the man is not guilty he is liable for damages. The courts of this state seem to be on the side of the man suing the sheriff for damages. The law says that the sheriff should know that the man arrested is the right man and guilty of the crime before he is arrested, a thing that juries are unable to determine after weeks of deliberation. If he arrests a man without a warrant he is liable to be stuck for damages. The laws of this state are all against the sheriffs in this false imprisonment matter. I would suggest that the sheriffs have a law passed holding that when the sheriff arrests a man on good faith honestly believing that he is the man named, where the facts show the absence of malice and that not sufficient time was allowed to get a warrant that damages ought not to be allowed, or if allowed they should be limited to the loss of time and nothing more."

Attorney Howth closed with a tribute to the sheriffs of the state who he said were earnest men, who were discharging their duties to the state and to the people of the state to the best of their ability.

Colquitt Wires.

A message was read from O. B. Colquitt thanking the convention for the expression of sympathy on the death of his son which was sent to him by telegraph Tuesday evening. A message was also sent from Sam Sparks at Galveston, sending his greetings to the sheriffs.

At the close of the morning session a photograph was taken of the delegates to the convention in front of the chamber of commerce building.

Late Arrivals.

Eleventh hour arrivals at the convention were registered Wednesday morning were: H. L. Hess, of Pittsburgh; M. B. Stanley, of Gilmer; T. Carrabine, Ontario; H. S. Hammer, Dallas, and Sampson Connell, Georgetown. Capt. W. H. McGhee, of El Paso, was a sheriff of Matamoros county in 1889, was one of the visitors at the convention Wednesday.

Tuesday Afternoon.

The sheriffs got down to brass tacks Tuesday afternoon and transacted much of the preliminary business of the convention. Miss Lydia Kirk, daughter of secretary John P. Kirk, read the membership roll, to which the response was meager, as there is less than one-fourth of the total membership present at the convention. Following this, Miss Kirk read the minutes of the last annual meeting, which was held at Galveston last year. These minutes were received with applause and then Capt. W. H. McGhee, of El Paso county, was escorted to a place at the officers' table soon after the afternoon session began. Jake Giles and J. W. Wilson were appointed by president Townsend to act as escorts to the distinguished captain. This honor was bestowed upon Capt. Wright because he was the chaplain of the association, so sheriff Wilson explained, although there was a grin chasing itself over J. R.'s countenance when he said it.

Nearshifter Wants In.

A letter was read from M. H. Denman, of Brownwood, who was formerly a member of the association, and who is a candidate for the same office in his county without opposition. He asked to be made a member again and to be placed on the legislative committee, as he had some important legislation to submit to the next January session of the legislature. His letter was filed with the secretary after it was read. A recess was then taken to allow the members to pay their dues and they swooped down upon the secretary's table and filled a suit case with their back dues, fines and assessments.

When the convention took up again, a motion was made by Amos Lee that a telegram of sympathy be drafted to be sent to O. B. Colquitt, expressing the sympathy of the convention on the death of his son. Another resolution was also passed to have a similar telegram prepared and sent to the board of aldermen of New York, sympathizing with that city on the attempted assassination of mayor Gaynor. A committee, composed of president Townsend, vice president Anderson, secretary Kirk, Jake Giles and Amos Lee, was selected to frame these messages.

Pleasure Plans.
The entertainment program for the week was announced by secretary Kirk of the chamber of commerce. This includes the smoker at the Elks club Wednesday evening; a trip to Cloudcroft Thursday and a band concert and complimentary performance at the Airdome Friday evening. Automobile rides were also arranged for the women to be given at a time best suited to their convenience. Other entertainment is to be arranged for the women who are here for the convention, whom will probably take the form of a luncheon.

Excursion to Cloudcroft.
The trip to Cloudcroft Thursday was the subject of much discussion by the convention. The idea of staying in El Paso a fourth day was brought up, but it was decided that this would be a pleasure and not a hardship, and it was decided to close up everything to be brought before the convention Wednesday in order that everyone could make the trip to the mountains. A special rate of $3 has been arranged for and extra coaches are to be supplied for the accommodation of the visiting sheriffs.

In Memoriam.
The report of the secretary showed that there were nine applicants for membership and that there had been four deaths since the last annual meeting. A committee on resolutions, composed of R. V. Watts, Sampson Connell, J. J. Perry, Amos Lee and J. W. Wood, was appointed by the president to prepare resolutions for the convention. A memorial committee was also appointed and was composed of the following: J. E. Wilson, Hugh Miller, E. C. Seale, W. R. Crane and J. W. Kinchloe.

New Members.
The applicants for membership and the deaths in the association were read as follows:
Applicants for Membership.
J. A. Walton, Brewster county.
J. G. Youngblood, city marshal, Floresville.
J. P. Dahl, constable, Bee county.
L. E. Carr, city marshal, Midland.
C. W. Hill, deputy sheriff, Bastrop.
T. C. Wier, sheriff, Abilene.
Jno. R. Williams, sheriff, Borden county.
Jno. B. Ayres, sheriff, Sterling county.
O. R. Martin, deputy, Hale county.

Deaths.
J. R. Thornton, constable, Liberty county, died November 24, 1909.
C. H. Heirs, deputy sheriff, Nueces, December 27, 1909.
Sam H. Davis, sheriff, Coryall, February 26, 1910.
A. J. Lewis, ex-sheriff, Milam, May 1, 1910.

ORPHAN BAND TO PLAY AT AIRDOME

Music lovers with whom the Reyes "Kid Band" has made a hit will get a chance to hear it play again on Friday night. This time the boys will play at the Airdome, manager Rich having arranged to give them a part of the receipts of his show, to help them buy uniforms.

The boys will play between acts and before the show. All who attend the show will be helping the orphan boys to buy their uniforms.

SHERIFF'S NIGHT AT AIRDOME.
Tonight will be a gala one at the Airdome. Manager Rich has invited the visiting sheriffs to see the show and a special performance will be given in their honor.

On Friday night in addition to the regular performance, arrangements have been completed whereby Reyes' "Kid Band" will give a concert before the show starts.

THE BIJOU.

Tonight at the Bijou, the feature picture will be Cagliostro, a dramatic story from the life of the famous well known work, "The Memoirs of a Physician."

This picture is beautifully colored and admirably acted. The character of Cagliostro is excellently portrayed by Mlle. Napierkowska, the graceful dancer of the Paris opera house.

SYMPTOMS OF GAYNOR GOOD

as sound as any man's of fifty odd years, but he has nourished in his heart a hatred for mayor Gaynor ever since he was discharged for incompetency last July as a New York watchman in the department of docks and ferries. Since then he has repeatedly written to the mayor anonymously and otherwise, harping on an idea that he had been persecuted, and demanding redress.

He has even written to the governor, Gaynor highly regarded. London, Eng., Aug. 10.—The London newspapers print full reports of the attack on mayor Gaynor. The Standard, in a special issue, says: "Mayor Gaynor ranks high in the class of men who can be spared from the world's work. The completion of his career is a matter of international importance and his loss would be a calamity to his country."

HEAVY RAINS FALL.
IN DALHART VICINITY
Dalhart, Texas, Aug. 10.—Heavy rains fell here again last night and floods are interfering with railroad travel. Denver trains one and two are indefinitely late owing to washouts.

There was a fatal wreck on the Rock Island 20 miles east of Tucuman on the T. & M. division, caused by a bridge over a small stream being washed out. A passenger train east bound early this morning went through the bridge.

LYNCHERS ARE INDICTED ON MURDER CHARGE

Columbus, Ohio, Aug. 10.—Sixteen members of the mob at Newark who participated in the riot and lynching of Carl E. Brington on July 8 were today indicted by the grand jury for murder in the third degree.

SHERIFFS PRAISE JAIL.

Just an ever loyal and visiting sheriff has inspected the county jail during the present convention of the officers. The visitors pronounced the El Paso jail the cleanest and best kept in the state.

A daily short story every day in The Herald; also the serial.

HOW TO FIND OUT

Fill a bottle or common glass with urine and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling usually indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys. Too frequent desire to urinate, scanty supply, pain or dull ache in the back, should also convince you that the kidneys or bladder are out of order.

What to Do.
There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy, fulfills almost every wish in relieving pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold urine, and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to get up many times during the night to urinate.

The mild, pleasant and extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest of its wonderful results in the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine, you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle of Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, and a book that tells all about it, both sent absolutely free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing be sure to mention that you read this generous offer in the El Paso Daily Herald. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

DISSENSION IN THE NEW MEXICO RANKS

water-wagon. The Democrats in eastern New Mexico are known to favor the proposition and the prohibitionists figure that they can bring enough pressure to bear to secure, if not a prohibition clause in the constitution, then a local option provision, or a separate submission of these questions. But here is where the fight among themselves commences, for the prohibitionists are even farther from harmony than the Republicans and Democrats.

EL PASO DEMOCRATS ARE INTERVIEWED WHILE EN ROUTE.
Says the San Antonio Express: Dr. B. M. Worsham, sheriff F. J. Hall and E. F. McNulty, part of the El Paso delegation to the state Democratic convention at Galveston, arrived in San Antonio last night. They spent only the time between trains in this city.

El Paso county instructed for Colquitt and for anti-prohibition, and the delegation has its fighting clothes on. The members expect a warm time and will be in the thick of the contest. "El Paso is against prohibition," said Dr. Worsham last night. "Our delegation will do all in its power to keep from making a prohibition party out of the Democracy of this state. We do not believe the citizens of Texas want it. We know the citizens of west Texas do not."

Mr. McNulty is as vigorously opposed to prohibition as Dr. Worsham and will take a prominent part in the contest which is sure to come up. The third member, sheriff Hall, was recently defeated on the face of the returns for renomination by the Democrats but in making a contest. He claims that the "machine" used illegal methods in bringing about his defeat.

The delegation is friendly to United States senator Bailey and will work with him in securing that resolutions endorsing the course and his attitude on national questions are adopted.

WASHOUTS NORTH OF ALAMOGORDO

Heavy Rain Damages Track and Floods Alamogordo Business Places.

Alamogordo, N. M., Aug. 10.—A four hour rain fell here this morning, the heaviest in years. The streets ran like young rivers and many lower floors of buildings were flooded. Railroad trackage was damaged in several places between Alamogordo and Tularosa, delaying traffic several hours.

Tanks are all full of water and the benefit to cattle is inestimable.

For Better Country Schools.
That the pupils in the country school districts may have the same advantages as those in the large towns, it is expected that a plank will be placed in the platform demanding a law providing for such improvements.

Senator Bailey has pledged himself to the plan which will set forth that at present there are no laws providing for the organization of country schools, which are conducted in a haphazard manner and the next legislature will be asked to enact a proper school law for the farmers' children's benefit.

Thomas to Contest in Court.
H. Bascom Thomas, of Sulphur Springs, realizing that the lieutenant governorship is slipping from his grasp as a result of the primaries of July 23, will take his contest against A. B. Davidson into the courts, according to a direct report from him today. Thomas hopes, it is said, to cause consternation in the ranks of his opponents by his contemplated action. Yesterday Thomas said he would go before the new executive committee five days after its formation.

Committeemen Challenged.
At a caucus of senatorial delegates this morning, Paul Waples, of Fort Worth, was selected to succeed Judge W. R. Parker, as a member of the state Democratic executive committee. The caucus was held at the Tremont hotel. Parker was nominated for the position but declined in favor of Waples.

MINER WINS A BET BUT DRINKS SELF TO DEATH.
Bluebe, Ariz., Aug. 10.—Victor Anderson, a miner aged 30, died shortly after drinking a quart of whisky. He had bet $5 that he could drink the liquor in less than 10 minutes and accomplished the feat in eight minutes at the cost of his life.

and the engine rests half of every day.

Your watch runs day and night continuously, but when did you have it oiled? Are the delicate pivots grinding away on dry jewels, to their destruction? Are watches so cheap that you can afford to have your watch lose all its good time keeping virtues by neglect?

Bring your watch to us before the injury goes further. There may be an excuse for its poor performance of late. We will examine it and congratulate you if it needs no attention; and if it does, you shall pay no more than is necessary to restore it to perfect health.

WENDLING MAKES FIGHT AGAINST REMOVAL

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 10.—The smiling Wendling is going to fight hard to keep from going back to Louisville to stand trial on the charge of murdering little Alma Keltner.

Attorneys for Wendling say they are confident the prisoner will be released on habeas corpus.

Joseph G. Williams, of Wendling's local counsel, said he expected that Wendling will be rearrested under the Missouri first fugitive law. He explained that the habeas corpus were instituted on the theory that Wendling was being illegally detained by the St. Louis police at the request of the Louisville authorities for the purpose of obtaining a confession.

Six witnesses from Louisville are here to testify for Wendling at the hearing. Constable Bode of St. Louis county declared positively that Wendling is not George Frey, wanted for the death of Nellie Nienaber in St. Louis county in 1908.

THE HERALD WILL CALL YOU AT THE BALL GAME.
Doctors and professional or business men who want to go to the ball games and expect calls while they are away from their offices, can leave word with their clerks or associates to communicate with The Herald if it is necessary for them to leave the game, and The Herald will at once call them over its private phone line, which operates between the editorial rooms and the grandstand.

AMATEUR BALL PLAYERS.
The Herald wants to print all the news about amateur ball games in El Paso; those already played or to be played. Bring in your notice about future games and reports of games played. If they are played on Sunday, send the report to The Herald Sunday afternoon or early Monday. All reports must be signed by the person sending them in, but the names will not be published.

SAFE AND SANE.
